MARTIN | HILD, P.A.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Serving the Construction Industry

A boutique firm.
With a national practice.

WWW.MARTINHILD.COM

The attorneys of Martin | Hild represent general contractors and design-builders as well as others in the construction industry, and only in the construction industry.

The attorneys of Martin | Hild, P.A. are dedicated to representing those in the construction industry. Having represented national and international owners, contractors, and design professionals in Florida and throughout the country, the attorneys are committed to the highest professional standards and service. Mr. Martin and the members of his team have litigated multi-million-dollar disputes involving, among others, schedule delays and acceleration, extra work, differing site conditions, contract payment disputes, design defects, construction and mechanics' liens, payment/performance bonds, construction defects, bid protests, and contract preparation and reviews.

Another way that the firm offers value is by creatively utilizing expert witnesses and consultants as well as cutting-edge technology to provide the most efficient and cost-effective solutions that arise in typical construction cases.

Finally, while Martin | Hild are construction trial attorneys, the firm's foremost concern is extricating its clients from disputes as early as is practically possible. In many cases, that means alternative dispute resolution, i.e., mediation or arbitration.

> Ranked Tier 1 in Construction Law by Best Law Firms for 2027, in Orlando and in Colorado. Attorneys recognized by Best Lawyers, Super Lawyers and Martindale-Hubbell.

What we are brought in to do

The firm creatively uses expert witnesses, consultants and current technology to reach the most efficient and cost-effective resolution a case allows.

Delay, acceleration and lost productivity

Paul A. Bennett

PARTNER

Mr. Bennett's practice focuses on construction litigation, claim development and transactional matters, assisting clients in the resolution of complex legal issues relating to construction projects often exceeding $100 million. He represents general contractors, joint ventures, owners and other construction parties in the public and private construction process, including contract preparation and negotiation, risk management, contemporaneous counseling during design and construction operations, and resolution of disputes after construction via mediation, arbitration and litigation. He also frequently drafts and negotiates industry contracts as well as highly specialized construction contracts and other transactional instruments in both the public and private construction arenas.

Mr. Bennett has substantial experience developing and litigating construction claims involving project delays, disruption, lost efficiency and productivity, design errors and omissions, differing site conditions, breaches of standard of care and defective workmanship. His prior experience includes assisting general contractors on large-scale public infrastructure and design-build projects ranging in value from $450 million to over $2 billion. He provided significant assistance in the development of complex construction claims on massive public construction projects including highways, railroads, bridges, light rail systems, airports and a variety of EPC projects such as industrial power facilities and solar projects. In the private sector, he has counseled owners, developers, general contractors and subcontractors in the resolution of disputes relating to hotels, retail centers, mixed-use projects and a performing arts center.

Mr. Bennett has assisted clients throughout the United States, including projects in Florida, Texas, Nevada, California, Colorado, Maryland and the Carolinas.
